

Rey10 is located in Izmir / Turkey and a company that offers consultancy for international trade, translation services, investigation for product, freight and transportation services etc. Rey10 have operations including Export and Import marketing and business development, advisory support to exporters and importers on international documentation, manufacturers representative, international trade broker, trade facilitation and business introductions, finance, payment arrangements and risk management procedures. Our aim is to create an ideal match between local business prospects and interested parties, both domestically and internationally. Our local contacts and connections with international companies allow us to provide our clients with unique business connections and support systems that meet each of their respective needs. We can strategically set up your entire marketing campaign, logistics, manufacturing and distribution to prove a key asset to many global organizations. Rey10 Management

Şirketin Web Sayfası

Mesaj Gönder

Arkadaşına Gönder

