CREATIVE EDGE is an advertising and graphic design studio. We specialize in logo design, corporate identity, branding, stationery design, magazine ? newspaper - newsletter design, direct mail design, website design, and web development. Our goal with every project is to create compelling and effective designs. We excel in this goal by combining a clear understanding of what contributes to an effective strategy aligned with the very best in design methodology and technical functionality. Please feel free to browse our portfolio and website to discover more about who we are, what we do and how we do it.
